

Biting insects are common. Many people, especially children, can be seriously effected by insect bites. Always check outdoor play areas and toys before allowing children to play. Look underneath structures in and around play areas where insects can hide. Teach your children about

